

ONANDAGA TOWS THE RUSSIAN

Plucky Captain Who Refused to Abandon Ship Now Has Satisfaction of Seeing Her in Port

THE SECOND MATE KILLED

The Revenue Cutter Hunted Seventeen Hours for the Dismasted Ship.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., April 14.—Leslie M. Scott, formerly of the editorial staff of the Portland Oregonian, and one of the brightest newspaper men in the West, arrived in the city this morning with Mrs. Scott and is at the Atlantic Hotel. Mr. Scott will have charge of the editorial department of "The Jamestown Magazine," to be published by Albert Moss. The first number of the magazine will appear next month.

The revenue cutter Onondaga, Captain J. C. Moore, passed in the capes of the Chesapeake yesterday, having in tow the American fishing schooner Ethel Mildred, of New York, and the Russian schooner Nara, of Unga, the latter dismasted. The Nara was dismasted during a gale on the 6th. Her second mate was killed by falling overboard. She was picked up by the British steamer Exmouth, which, however, abandoned her when the tow line parted during the gale on the night of the 6th. The Onondaga put to sea from Norfolk on the evening of the 12th, and after a search of seventeen hours, discovered the wrecked schooner, thirty-three miles from the capes. The Nara was then being slowly towed by the fishing schooner Ethel Mildred, which had picked her up the previous night. The revenue cutter took both vessels in tow and brought them to Chesapeake. The plucky skipper of the Nara, Captain Kuitberg, refused to abandon his ship, and now has the satisfaction of seeing his craft once more at anchor in a good harbor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ELON COLLEGE, N. C., April 14.—The fifteenth annual debate between the Philologist and Cho Literary Societies in the college chapel last night attracted one of the largest crowds that ever assembled in this place. Query—"Resolved, That centralization of population in cities hinders national advancement."

The speakers held the audience in their grasp, and many congratulations were offered at the close of their addresses. The decision was given to the affirmative, represented by R. J. Keadle and G. O. Lankford, of the Phi Society. Hon. W. A. Edgerton, Smithfield, N. C., one of the judges, dissented from the majority of the committee. The speakers of the negative—A. L. Lindsay and E. G. Hollings—covered themselves with glory, though in defeat. Misses Ramsay, Kerville, Barnes and Smith presided at the piano, and gave us splendid music.

Beer is a Strengthening Food

It Refreshes and Builds Up the Body With Nourishment in Predigested Form.

As a strengthening, nutritious food, physicians and scientists now agree that there is nothing more beneficial than pure beer. Pure beer, rich in the food extractives of eight-day exclusive Pabst malt and the tonic properties of hops, nourishes the whole body, restores wasted tissues, invigorates the blood, refreshes the brain and aids greatly in the digestion of solid foods.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, known everywhere as the Best Beer, because of the absolute purity of its ingredients and the exclusive Pabst method of brewing, is considered perfect beer and perfect food. It is rich in the food properties derived from eight-day barley malt, sugar and other carbohydrates so necessary to the health of the body, along with the proteids, potash and phosphorus, all of which nourish and build up the body and brain.

Many people unable to take solid food have been built up by Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer. And it is just as good for the well as for the sick. Pabst Blue Ribbon with meals tones up the whole system. It has a splendid helpful, up-building, strengthening effect.

Cleanliness and purity are essential for healthful beer, just as they are essential for any other healthful food. And purity and cleanliness are watchwords in the great Pabst brewery at Milwaukee. Only the finest selected barley and choicest hops are used. The whole Pabst process is a revelation of scientific progress, the result of sixty years' pursuit of all the best known methods in the science of brewing. The Pabst Blue Ribbon label is a guarantee of age, purity and strength, cleanness and the best beer brewed.

If your food doesn't taste just right, or if your digestion is a little "off," or your appetite is poor, try Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer and find for yourself that it is good food.

TIDEWATER HUNT CLUB ORGANIZED

They Secure a Fine Breed of Imported Fox-Hounds for Their Kennel.

A BROKEN-HEARTED HORSE

Stays Around the Spot Where His Companions Were Killed and is Unfit for Work.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

JARRATT, VA., April 14.—The Tidewater Hunt Club has been organized here, with Dr. O. C. Wright as president and J. B. Jarratt as vice-president. They have secured from abroad hounds of high breed. The "boys" claim that nothing puts them in closer touch with old times than a spirited fox-hunt. It is possible that President Roosevelt may be invited to join them in a hunt next fall.

Mr. W. H. Quigg, a contractor for the Tidewater Railroad, recently lost his stable and twenty-one horses by fire. They succeeded in getting out two horses, one of which seems to be broken-hearted. When allowed to run at large, he goes to the spot of the fire and gives every token of sorrow, refusing to leave unless forced away. When put to work, he seems still to brood over his lost companions, and his work is so unsatisfactory they have dispensed with his services for the present.

The Baptist folk here have installed their new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Warren, in the new parsonage, one among the handsomest houses in the village, situated on West End Avenue, the aristocratic part of the town. They pounced him a few days ago, and among the many good things sent him were two barrels of flour and twenty-four old Virginia hams. He seems to be delighted with his new field, and they are very proud of their pastor. Owing to the continued illness and critical condition of Mr. William Wakeham, father of Mrs. F. L. Pedneau, of this place, his brothers, the Rev. Father Wakeham, of Yorkers, N. Y., and Albert Wakeham, of Clayton, Del., have been summoned to his bedside.

Mr. Guy Harrison is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. The people here were deeply interested in the whiskey contest which recently came off at Emporia. They lent their aid and influence in behalf of a first-class distillery, near here, failed to renew its license the 1st of May, owing to opposition which was known to exist and which would have been urged against it. There is not a single bar-room in this village.

Allen, of Botetourt, and Irving P. Whitehead, of Amherst county.

In the Glades of Chesterfield.

No better place can be found to welcome the advent of spring, get away from the dust and gloom of the city, than along the Richmond and Petersburg electric line. Trees are fast budding all along the line, and the grass is getting green. At Falling Creek, seven miles from Richmond, there are splendid fishing grounds and an excellent fishing place, where large fish are plentiful. Swift Creek, fifteen miles from the city, is another delightful place for fishing. Cars from any section of Richmond will take you to the Manchester cars, which land at the Severn street station for the road for one fare.

Fortune Awaits Missing Woman
WINCHESTER, VA., April 14.—If Mrs. Lacy Bly, a young woman well-known to the police here, was found guilty in the Police Court yesterday morning and sentenced to six months in jail for petit larceny and placed under security in the sum of $300 for another twelve months. Bicycle Patrolman Hadden Amos and Detective W. H. Whitfield arrested the young man. The attention of the police was called to the fact that laurels were being stolen from the Masonic Temple, and lately the two fans were missing. One of the fans was found in the home of the sister of the young man, and this was turned over to the officers of the lodge.

Justice Crutchfield is one of the oldest Masons in Richmond, and he knew the exact spot from which the fans were taken—the dining-room.

PICKPOCKET STOLE JEWELS WORTH $20,000

Diamond Cutter Falls Into the Clutches of Expert Negro Thief in New York.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 14.—A pickpocket stole $20,000 worth of jewelry early to-day in the Tenderloin district by feigning need of charity. Emilio Berges, a blond cutter, reported to the police that while he and another man were walking together through West Twenty-Seventh street near Sixth avenue they were spoken to by a negro who appeared to be in distress. Berges says that she took hold of his coat while asking for money. After she had disappeared he found that an inner coat pocket had been picked of its contents, including the jewelry, which was in a small package. The police, after an investigation, arrested the negro woman and two negro men on suspicion.

CUMMISSIONS ISSUED TO GOVERNOR'S STAFF

Oath of qualification has been filed by Second Lieutenant Joseph P. Orders have been issued for the election of a captain of Company E, Seventy-second Regiment, at Chase City, to fill the vacancy created by the promotion of Captain Benjamin R. Roberts, of that company, to be colonel and aid on the staff of the Governor.

Commissions were issued yesterday by Governor Swanson to the members of his staff as captain of Company E, Seventy-second Regiment, and commander-in-chief. The commissions give each member the rank of colonel of cavalry, and date of rank of March 1, 1906.

Orders have been issued by the adjutant-general's office announcing the official appointment of the staff as colonels and aids on the staff of the Governor and directing Col. Eugene C. Massie to act as chief of staff.

Policeman Bryant Has a Few Easter Flowers Thrown at Him.

When Anderson James, a negro, came before Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning he listened to the reading of the charge of cursing on the street, as lodged against him, and then in an innocent manner bluntly asked the court this question: "Does yer think, Judge, dat Ah would er come to Leeceman Bryant dar of Ah had done cuss any?"

"If my opinion to come to him you will come, whether you have cursed or not. That officer is one of my finest on the bicycle force, and notwithstanding the fact that his looks count against him, he will almost bring the man he goes after," said the One John, as he asked James to the tune of $25.

C. W. Williams, a white man, said that he had the mumps and wanted to forget the trouble. That's the reason he went to the bootlegging manufacturers and purchased large samples. He was sorry that he had the mumps, "I'm sorry you had the mumps, too," said the One John, "but for fear of the disease spreading, I'm going to give you the twenty-three." He skiddooed.

Young Man Sent Down on Charge of Stealing Electric "Coolers."

For stealing two electric fans, property of the Masonic Lodge of Virginia, from the Masonic Temple here, Julius Barker, a young man well-known to the police here, was found guilty in the Police Court yesterday morning and sentenced to six months in jail for petit larceny and placed under security in the sum of $300 for another twelve months. THE RAILROADS OVERCROWDED

Unable to Move the Freight As Fast As It Is Offered.

COLLEGE UNIFORM STANDARDS

Conference Between Heads of Educational Institutions Looking to That End.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., April 14.—An unusually large number of complaints are coming in to the North Carolina Corporation Commission as to delays in the movement of freights by the railroad companies in all parts of the State, and the only plausible explanation of the situation is that the freight shipments are increasing to such a phenomenal degree that the roads in many instances find themselves absolutely unable to move the freight as fast as it is tendered by the shippers.

As an illustration of these complaints there was one which came in this morning from a wholesale merchant in Wilmington who has delivered to the Seaboard Air Line at Wilmington, a shipment including barrels of sugar and other groceries for which Lumberton was the destination. This was March 27th, and the goods did not reach Lumberton until April 7th, being thirteen days in transit to a point less than seventy-five miles, with direct connection. The last legislative passed an act prescribing that railroads shall be allowed four days within which to deliver freights to destinations within 100 miles. For the fifth day a fine of $25 is prescribed and $5 for each additional day's delay. The only way for the railroads to avoid the payment of these fines is to come into court and plead an unavoidable congestion of freight for which they are not to blame.

The statement was made in the office of the commission to-day that the railroads are paying out large amounts in these forfeitures, the settlements being reached with the individual shippers outside the courts. This would indicate that the railroads are simply overwhelmed with the volume of freight being offered for transportation.

Each of the great mass of complaints that come in to the Corporation Commission is taken up through correspondence with the shippers and the railroad companies, and in nearly all instances adjustments are made, very many of them being as intimated above, adjusted by the payment by the railroad company of some damages in the way of a compromise of the accumulated fines and forfeitures.

There was a conference here last night until past midnight between a committee from the North Carolina Association of Secondary Schools and presidents of the leading colleges and the State University, relative to the fixing of a uniform minimum standard of requirement for entrance into colleges from the academies and public high schools with the result that a special committee consisting of M. H. Holt, of Oak Ridge, and J. C. Horner, of Oxford, on the part of the academies, and J. C. Griffin, of Salisbury, and H. Morson, of Raleigh, graded schools for the city schools was named to prepare a uniform course of studies for the high schools or secondary schools.

The committee is to report at another meeting to be held here during the next week to the Teachers' Assembly in June. Those who were here to participate in the meeting were President F. P. Venable, State University; J. C. Griffin, Salisbury graded schools; J. T. Alderman, Henderson graded schools; President H. L. Smith, Davidson College; M. H. Holt, Oak Ridge Institute; John Graham, Warrenton; E. L. Middleton, Cary High School; President W. L. Poter, Wake Forest College; J. C. Horner, Horner School, Oxford; Walter Thompson, Concord graded schools; President R. Greenboro, graded schools; President T. Yarn, Baptist University, Raleigh; H. Morson, Raleigh graded schools; Captain John Duckett, State Department of Education.

Governor Glenn returned this morning from Washington, where he says he effected the preliminary settlement of the differences between the accounts of the United States War Department and the North Carolina National Guard that will result in the saving of several thousand dollars to the North Carolina Guard.
